WE GATHER FOR WORSHIP

Prelude: The Love of God - Frederick M. Lehman

*Responsive Call to Worship:

Come, all you whose souls thirst for the living God.

We come in search of help and hope.

Come, you who are in need of good news.

We come in search of joy, truth, and light.

Come and find refuge in God your rock.

Let us praise the One who is our help and our hope.

Introit: This Land is your Land - Woody Guthrie – sung by the Five Alive Singers

Prayer of Praise and Adoration

Prayer of Confession: (1 Kings 19, Psalm 42, Galatians 3)
Lord of the ages, in our busy lives, we do not always make time to love,
to pray, or to sing your praises.

We want to be strong, yet we often feel out of control:
buffeted by the winds of change, rocked by the earthquakes in our relationships, burned by the fires of doubt. Forgetting what we cannot see, we ask, "Why have you forgotten me?"

Help us trust your presence, even when we feel utterly alone, trapped in our dark night of the soul. With the promise of Christ as our hope, lead us from our own wilderness wanderings into the well-tended garden of your love. Amen.

Hymn of Praise: I Know Not Why

long to worship you.

the Day of Pentecost, make up the festival half of the church year. During this time, the Christian Church focuses on the life of Jesus and celebrates major festivals commemorating his life such as Christmas, Good Friday, Easter, Ascension, and Pentecost. The last season in the Christian Church year is the season of Pentecost. “What is the season of Pentecost about?”

The season of Pentecost is the longest season in the Christian Church year. It begins the Monday following the Day of Pentecost and lasts until the season of Advent begins. It lasts anywhere between 22 and 27 weeks, depending on when Easter takes place. The season of Pentecost is often referred to as the non-festival half of the church year because during this time the Christian Church does not celebrate a major festival commemorating the life of Jesus. It is also referred to as Ordinary Time. The word “ordinal” simply means counted time.

During the season of Pentecost, the Christian Church focuses on the teachings of Jesus. Christian Churches also celebrate other special festivals such as Mission Sunday, Reformation Sunday, All Saints Day, Reign of Christ, Thanksgiving, and others. The color of the paraments for season of Pentecost is green to symbolize how Christians grow in their faith through God’s Word.
