WE GATHER FOR WORSHIP

Prelude: Caro mio ben (Tommaso Giordani)

*Responsive Call to Worship: (Inspired by Psalm 27)

The Lord is our light and our salvation! Whom shall we fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of our lives. Of whom shall we be afraid?

One thing we shall ask of the Lord: to live in the house of the Lord all the days of our lives.

Teach us your way, O Lord, and lead us on a level path.

As we wait on the Lord, let us be strong and of good courage.

God has called us, and we have come. Let us worship God together!

Hymn of Praise: We Praise You O God #425 Blue Book

Prayer of Approach

Prayer of Confession:

God of majesty and mercy,

we confess that we lose track of you at times in the rush of our lives.

We are easily distracted by insignificant things and worried about matters of little concern.

We resent the gifts of others and take too much pride in our own.

Forgive what is unworthy in our lives.

Focus our attention on what matters, and make us more and more your people, shaped by your forgiveness and your desires. Amen.

Sermon Focus: Loving our Neighbour is Loving God?

This Mary-Martha story comes in Luke immediately after the Parable of the Good Samaritan, and Luke is just trying to illustrate the theme that we should love God with all our heart and our neighbor as ourselves.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan illustrates love of neighbor--that's what the Samaritan did for the man beaten by the robbers--and the story of Mary and Martha illustrates love of God--that's what Mary is doing sitting at Jesus' feet. Good Samaritan--love of neighbor. Mary and Martha--love of God. That's It. The hard part for many of us is that you cannot separate the two: over here is the love of neighbor; over there is the love of God. In the Christian life, they're intertwined, mixed together; you can hardly tell where one ends and the other begins. We show our love of God by loving our neighbor, and the true love of neighbor grows out of our love of God.

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord
Open the eyes of my heart
I want to see You
I want to see You

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord
Open the eyes of my heart
I want to see You
I want to see You

To see You high and lifted up
Shinin' in the light of Your glory
Pour out Your power and love
As we sing holy, holy, holy

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord
Open the eyes of my heart
I want to see You
I want to see You

To see You high and lifted up
Shinin' in the light of Your glory
Pour out Your power and love
As we sing holy, holy, holy

Holy, holy, holy
Holy, holy, holy
Holy, holy, holy,
I want to see you
