

Welcome to St. Mark's

Today is the 16th Sunday after Pentecost and we welcome everyone to this worship service as we give joyful praise to God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We wish for everyone a tremendous blessing as we worship God together. We extend special welcome to anyone who is worshipping with us for the first time.

If you are new to St. Mark's, we pray that your time with us this morning will be a blessing to you, and we invite you to fill in the blue Welcome Card in the pew rack and place it in the offering plate so that we have a record of your time with us.

Infants, toddlers, and children are welcome as part of our worship in the sanctuary! Following the first part of the service each Sunday, many of our children and youth go with their teachers to Sunday School. Children who are visiting are invited to join in!

Sermon Thoughts: 1 Timothy 6:6-19

The passage 1 Timothy 6:6-19 talks about what "true riches" are. It consists of two main paragraphs: First, the author describes behavior that provides contentment and mentions things that lead to temptation. Second, he gives further ethical advice, which he labels "the good fight of faith" (6:12).

Usually, Bible passages about material wealth cause some amount of discomfort or even reprehension among people in our modern North American context, which has a strong materialistic orientation. On a global scale, many of us would, after all, qualify as "rich." Moreover, there are many who often tend to associate personal success and happiness with material affluence. Therefore, texts such as 1 Timothy 6:6-10, 17-19 that pose questions regarding riches might be considered a challenge to our entire cultural and economic system.

The New Testament features several other texts with a similar attitude toward material wealth as in 1 Timothy 6:6-10, 17-19. Jesus, for example, said: "You cannot serve God and wealth" (Matthew 6:24 and also in Luke 16:9, 11, 13).

What Paul is urging Timothy to is contentment, and growth godliness, in contrast to the things which may stand in the ways of both—be it a love of controversy, "disputes about words," and wrangling, all of which come just before our reading begins in verse 6. The point Paul makes in this text isn't that money in itself is only and always evil, or that the possession of wealth produces only sin. Rather, Paul is urging contentment with what is God-given, and cautioning that if one loves wealth and gain, it can lead to danger.

When I look into Your holiness

When I look into Your holiness
 When I gaze into Your loveliness
 When all things that surround become shadows
 In the light of You
 When I've found the joy of reaching Your heart
 When my will becomes enthroned in Your love
 When all things that surround become shadows
 In the light of You

Chorus:

I worship You I worship You
 The reason I live is to worship You
